

Return Policy For Clove&Co

At Clove & Co, we take pride in offering high-quality, fresh garlic products. Because our products are perishable, all sales are final and non-refundable.

Please note that while we provide general storage guidelines for best results, actual shelf life may vary depending on how products are stored once they leave our hands. Heat, humidity, and other environmental factors can all affect product longevity. We are not responsible for spoilage or degradation due to improper or inconsistent storage conditions.

If your order arrives damaged or incorrect, please contact us within 48 hours of delivery with photos and a description of the issue. We're happy to work with you to make it right in those rare cases.

Thank you for supporting small, sustainable agriculture!
